Interesting Scenes at the Convention Today.

(CHICAGO, June 22)—The Republican National Convention met again at noon yesterday was the first day this was Speaker Cannon.

The day was flawless clear sunshine a fresh breeze from the lake and temperature 75. The delegates spent most of the morning out of doors before the hotels on the lake front where many of the State headquarters are situated and Governor's lined up along the curb with much of their folk on a walk and down watching equipage on the drive or looking at cars outside the breakers.

WHAT A HOLIDAY.

What a holiday this convention is remarked Senator Depea to his near neighbors who happened to be Governor Durbine of Indiana and Representative Robert R. Hill of Iowa. I feel as though I were at sea with nothing to except idle and look at the water. It is not strenuous said Mr. Hull "but always interesting. A national convention is always unique. I can't be dull in an impossibility. That scrap of monologue represents the way the delegates and speakers look upon the convention. It might give the observer a keener sense for there was a combat and yet have no suggestive character.

THE VISITORS

It is the kind of gathering I would be willing to exhibit to the diplomatic corps said Representative Wilson of Indiana on the curbstone pavement and I am sorry Mr. Motter of Maryland did not follow his intention of attending the convention. He would have seen a thoughtful cheerful orderly coming to the front of every American and a loyal type and in some of the delegates the assessor would have seen also how the assimilate men of foreign birth so that you can't distinguish between citizens of home and foreign origin. A band given by the Pennsylvania delegation gave a concert during the morning. Ladies visited the headquarters in hotels with flowers or called to get photos of statesmen or just to see from a distance. The turnout of carriages and automobiles was extraordinarily large. One session a day of the convention gives plenty of time for other engagements.

FAIRBANKS FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

CHICAGO, June 22—Senator Fairbanks of Indiana will be nominated for Vice President unanimously. The Illinois delegation met today and decided to withdraw the name of Representative Robert R. Hill. When Illinois is reached on the all of States Senator Cullom will announce that he has received a telegram from Mr. Hill directing that his name be withdrawn from the convention and that Illinois will support Senator Fairbanks. The names of the other candidates will be withdrawn Senator Deliber will present the name of Senator Fairbanks to the convention. With the platform completed and in the hands of the full committee every element of speculation seems removed from the remaining sessions of the convention. The members of the Colorado delegation said that following the action of the Illinois delegation they would not present the name of John W. Springer as a Vice Presidential candidate from that State.

rooms and there were several also breakfasting pictures at the clubs. Most of the clubs have a visiting list half large as the membership. No one was in quite as much of a hurry to go to the Coliseum as on Tuesday.

TAKE THEIR SEATS

The ease with which every cardholder was seated yesterday and the ease the assistant sergeant at arms took to secure to everyone its privilege of seated good progress towards the hall today. The doors were opened at 11 o'clock instead of 10:30. Many delegates walked the mile separating the Coliseum from the hotel district. They found the hall brilliant. Fresh flowers were on the rostrum. Sparrows were twittering in the rig. The ganders were heard. The band in the stand up near the back played the national airs.

TO WORLDS FAIR

The decision of the convention to accept the invitation of the Louisiana Exposition, which is a small city has done much to stir up the movement. Senator Dewey has arranged for three special trains for the delegates and the delegates of delegates on the railroads will be taken to and from St. Louis. It is a movement for a two day convention but today in view of the fact that a large number of delegates will go to St. Louis they are at least acquiescent. The initiative on the floor of the State building and Governor Odell and two United States Senators and others will attend.

DELEGATES LEAVE

While New York felt that it could not take the initiative on the floor of the convention it was perfectly apparent that some of the prominent delegates were attempting to promote the sentiment for an adjournment since to do this Governor Odell said.

Some of our delegates have to leave tonight. I understand that in many other States the delegates have already started. It would not do to have a majority of delegates in the delegates section when we nominate. If the platform is accepted today it would make a scene of great enthusiasm to go right on tonight and nominate.

Former Governor Frank S. Black of New York who is to nominate President Roosevelt said.

We ought to go right on today and nominate while everybody is here. I prefer to speak to full benches.

The sentiment is however that it is a better possible not expedient to crowd the remaining business of the convention into one day's session.

COMMITTEE AT WORK

The full committee on Resolutions accepted the work of the subcommittee. It is a committee worthy of the name. The committee met at 10 o'clock today and had completely finished its work at 11 o'clock.

Senator Lodge as chairman of the subcommittee read its report and a motion being made to adopt the work of the subcommittee, the work of the complete organization it prevailed with out a dissenting vote.

The only discussion was over minor points and there was no mention in what was a short sitting subject.

COMMERCE LAWS

Senator Carter of Montana sought a change in the change in the State Commerce declaration presenting an explanation to amend from time to time the Interstate Commerce laws so as to make them conform to the decisions of the courts and the requirements of the changed conditions but he was overruled on the ground that a general declaration was sufficient to cover the question.

There was also slight discussion of other features but it consisted of replies to questions intended to secure a lucid view of the matters.

IN CONVENTION.

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, June 22.—Although the doors of the hall were opened a half hour later than yesterday for the first time its minutes after 11 o'clock the head played to a sprinkling of gallery spectators only. A sea of brown backed chairs in the gallery and mezzanine was broken only by an occasional dot of black or the bright spot of a woman's gown. Groups of secretaries were seen in the aisles.

Alameda county will have 71 delegates in the Congressional Convention, Contra Costa 11 and Solano 12. All the delegates in Contra Costa, where Lukens is admittedly strong, can be appointed. So can the 7 delegates of Solano county outside of Vallejo.

In Alameda county, the Committee can appoint one delegate from the Forty-ninth district—Emeryville; one from the Fiftieth district—Emeryville; three from Brooklyn Township in the Fifty-first district; one from Piedmont and Claremont, in the Fifty-second district; and all the 11 delegates from Murray, Washington and Eden Townships, making a total of 35.

The following delegates are left to be elected by primary:

City of Alameda, Forty-seventh district, 9; Forty-eighth district, 9; Forty-ninth district, 8; Fiftieth district, 12; Fifty-first district, 6; Fifty-second district, 10; City of Vallejo, 5; a total of 54.

Alameda is conceded to Knowland. With the 35 appointed delegates, he would enter the convention with a total of 44 delegates out of 94.

However, the Lukens men are not going to surrender without a fight. They are going to bring to bear all sorts of pressure to have the program set aside and primary elections called for very precinct in the district. They claim that it would be outrageously unfair for a Committee selected to conduct the campaign two years ago to select delegates without consulting the voters.

"Why," said one Lukens man, "when the Committee was appointed two years ago nobody dreamed of this situation, nobody thought of Lukens and Knowland in connection with the Congressional nomination. Mr. Metcalf was the only man considered, and the Committee was appointed to manage his campaign. Nobody expected him to retire. Certainly nobody had any idea that in the event of his declining to be a candidate again the Committee would arrogate to itself the right to nominate his successor. The Republican voters of the district alone have the right to designate the man they want for Congress. I do not see how Joe Knowland, who has always ranked as a clean, decent, high-minded man, can afford to accept a nomination obtained by such means. The scheme itself is unfair and discreditable on its face."

This talk delivered with energy fairly represents the feeling among the partisans of Lukens.

"What will Lukens do in case the appointing program goes through?" was asked of the indignant speaker aforesaid.

"I don't know," was the angry response. "We will not believe the Committee will do this thing till we see it done. We hope to see the right thing."

The matter will come to a head quickly, for the Committee is required by law to meet and issue its call for primaries by the 29th of June. The Convention will meet, in Oakland, probably, in August. In the meantime there promises to be a lively shake-up.

It is understood that neither Senator Belshaw of Contra Costa nor District Attorney Devlin of Solano have Congressional aspirations. Both have their eye on the State Senate. Senator Frank Leavitt is in the East, but prior to his departure he positively assured his friends that he would not be a candidate. Neither is Lieutenant Governor Alden Anderson.

CONGRESS DELEGATES TO BE APPOINTED.

Lukens' Supporters Up in Arms Against the Scheme and Demand Primaries Outside the Cities.

The Congressional Committee for the Third District is as follows:

W. H. CHICKERING,	DR. C. L. TISDALE,
FRANK BARNET	W. L. CROOKS,
J. M. STOW,	W. G. HENSHAW,
GEORGE D. METCALF,	H. F. STAHL,
JOHN BIRMINGHAM,	C. L. CRELLIN,
E. E. JOHNSON,	R. W. CHURCH,
MORRIS FLYNN,	EVERETT J. BROWN,
J. H. W. RILEY.

These men will decide the Congressional contest.

From the best information obtainable, the Republican Congressional Committee of the Third District intends to appoint all the 35 delegates outside the incorporated cities of Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and Vallejo, every one of whom will vote for the nomination of State Senator Joseph R. Knowland of Alameda.

As there will be only 94 delegates in the Convention, this is equivalent to giving Mr. Knowland the nomination. It is conceded that he will get the delegates from Alameda, which with the 35 that the committee proposes to appoint will make a total of 44 without a struggle. It will be only necessary for him to get four more anywhere in the district to get the nomination.

The committee claims precedent and law for its proposed action. The law authorizes the appointment of delegates outside incorporated cities, in which primaries are obligatory, and party usage has occasionally sanctioned that method of choosing them. But the appointing method is exceptional, and is generally resorted to when there is no issue at stake.

It is needless to say that the friends of Senator Lukens, who proposes to dispute the succession to Congressman Metcalf with his Alameda colleague, have been thrown into consternation by the announcement of the Committee's program. They realize that if it is carried out, all is over but the shouting. They are therefore up in arms against the scheme, and will make a desperate effort to induce the committee to reconsider its determination. If they fail, a bitter factional fight is likely to be injected into the politics of the district.

While some of the Committeemen are opposed to the appointing plan, the Knowland men are in a clear majority, and can put it through if they see fit.

Alameda county will have 71 delegates in the Congressional Convention, Contra Costa 11 and Solano 12. All the delegates in Contra Costa, where Lukens is admittedly strong, can be appointed. So can the 7 delegates of Solano county outside of Vallejo.

BANKING BY MAIL

In many Eastern Cities is growing to large proportions with a tendency to increasing popularity.

The depositor encloses a check or postal order and pass-book in an envelope and sends them to the Bank through the mail. The pass-book is returned the same way. It saves the time of a busy man, and is perfectly safe.

This system prevails not only between distant cities, but between such near-by points as Oakland and Berkeley and San Francisco and even between different sections of the same city.

Story of Woman and Wife in the Black Tragedy.

Black lived at 1456 Filbert street, in this city, and was supported by his wife and two small children. Miss Hunt met Black here. Since then he has never been able to leave her and has endeavored to induce her to live with him. After she came to San Francisco to the Black procured employment on that side of the bay.

At present Miss Hunt is employed by J. J. Hillman at 715 Sutter street, San Francisco, where she has been rendering efficient service. Very frequently Black has been seen standing outside the door waiting for her that he might press his suit.

WANTED GIRL TO ELOPE.

Miss Hunt has since the death of her parents been employed by various tailoring establishments in this city and formerly resided at 438 Tenth street here. Some years ago she became acquainted with Black, who was a tailor, and also met his family. From that time she says her life has been unhappy.

Almost from the first Black told her of his love, and urged her to elope with him, and when she steadfastly refused, urging him to be true to his wife, he still continued forcing his unwelcome attentions upon her.

BLACK'S LAST WORDS.

"If I can't have you now I will tomorrow morning or kill myself," were the parting words of James Black last night as I closed the door of my home," said Miss Hunt. "I know then that I had still more reason to be afraid of him than ever before. For months and months I thought I had escaped from him by going to San Francisco to live, but still followed me. Last night I received a note from Black saying that if I did not come out to see him he would come in to see me and kill me both."

"I was so terrified that I could not remember what I did next. I tried to open the door, but he was standing in the doorway and found him talking to him a long time and telling him that he should do his duty. As I turned to enter my house he grabbed me by the arm and tried to drag me with him, but just then a man who was passing stopped and offered his assistance in calling a policeman. He did not want Black to be in trouble, so I called the stranger that there was no need of calling help. Then it was that Black made his threat."

HOUNDED BY BLACK.

"This morning I had breakfast by 8 o'clock and rode downtown instead of walking, as is my custom. Just after passing my fare I glanced at the back platform, and there saw Black, his face as white as a sheet. I was so frightened I did not know what to do, but I rode. I had better try to get to the place where I work. As I left the car at Taylor street Black also jumped off and came toward me. Seeing I could not avoid him I stopped and talked to him. He was very excited and said all the old things I have heard him say so often over and over again. He kept urging me to go out with him this evening, and when I refused, said, 'All right, I will kill myself right now.'"

"Pulling a revolver out of his pocket, I saw he really meant what he said, so I tried to make him give me the pistol. 'If I go out with you this evening will you give me the pistol now?'"

PROMISED FOR PEACE.

"Yes," answered he, "if you promise." "I do," said I, and with that he handed it to me. As soon as I had it I threw it as far as I could. Black was very angry and ran for it. Two men then rushed toward Black and wanted to get the pistol, but he picked it up first. We all walked down Sutter street toward Powell, and I tried to say something out loud to Black, but it was of no use. Black was very excited and, seeing some people stopping to look at him and at the men who were trying to make him give up the pistol, he ran up the hill. The next moment, it seemed to me, I heard the shot fired. I do not know whether he has killed himself or not, but I do know that I have lived in terror of my own life for months."

WIFE'S STORY IN OAKLAND.

Mr. James Black was interviewed by a TRIBUNE reporter at her residence, 1456 Filbert street, this afternoon. She said, when asked concerning the death of her husband:

"I was very much surprised to hear the dreadful news concerning my husband. He was not a man accustomed to the use of weapons and never threatened any of his family. I blame the cause of his death to the woman Hunt. Miss Hunt was introduced to our family to me by my husband. I thought at that time she was a woman fit to visit us, but in a short time I found that Mr. Black had more intimate interests with the woman than he did with his own family."

HAPPY YEARS.

Mr. Black was engaged in the tailoring business at 539 Fourteenth street for three years. The first year the business was good and our married life was very happy. Miss Hunt was employed by my husband in his establishment, and he spent the receipts of his business on this woman, leaving me and our two little ones without means of a monthly income. When he found that his tailoring business was going to the bad as a result of his expenses with this woman, he sold out to W. R. Webster, who is now running the concern.

"The occasion of my husband's suicide has been a great blow to me, and he leaves us absolutely penniless. I have two children, Agnes, aged 3, and William, aged 5, to support. Everything you see in the house comprises the furnishings when we were married. Mr. Black has of late been out of work and as far as

MRS. DOT BERNARD WEARY OF LIFE ATTEMPTS TO END IT.

Disgusted with life, Mrs. Dot Bernard, wife of a baker, attempted suicide by turning on the gas in a room she took at the Webber House at Twelfth and Franklin last night.

She was found about 9 o'clock this morning and hurried to the Receiving Hospital where she soon showed signs of recovery and the gas had evidently not been turned on long or had failed in having any serious effect.

About a year ago she created a sensation by telling a strange story of having been kept a prisoner in a house in the Piedmont district for a week. She was in a state bordering on delirium tremens from the effects of liquor.

Last night she went out to Idora Park and was there until a late hour. Instead of going to her home at No. 12 Telegraph avenue, she took a room in the Webber House and sometime between the time of retiring and 9 o'clock she turned on the gas. The smell of the gas in the hallway attracted the attention of attendants and the door was broken open and the woman found in an unconscious condition in bed. A call for the police patrol was sent in and she was taken to the Receiving Hospital.

INQUEST IN SLOCUM CASE.

NEW YORK, June 21.—When the coroner's jury which is investigating the disaster to the Slocum resumed its session today, Daniel O'Neil, a fire drill on the Slocum, although he had been employed on her ever since she was put in commission this year, he could not recall a new hose and said there were no life preservers on the hurricane deck.

O'Neil corroborated the testimony that the store room had contained oil, besides the lanterns. Witnesses learned of the fire when he heard the people shouting. Then he ran to the hose. It cooled and burst when the water pressure reached it. Then he got the rubber washing hose, but the coupling would not fit the stand pipe. After that he jumped overboard and swam ashore.

Edward Brandow, assistant engineer of the Slocum, testified that for use in fighting fires they had a crank engine for pumping water on the fire hose. They never had any hose on the Slocum.

The report recommends that the practice be discontinued as it is "wrong from an administrative point of view."

Crosby of O'Fallon, Ills.

JOKE FOR JOKE ON GOVERNOR.

Soubrette in Theater in Well Known Local Man to Act in Slocum Inquiry.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Governor Pardee, who prides himself as one of California's most renowned practical jokers and who was concealing light intrigues against his fellow delegates all the way across the continent, had the tables turned on him when he went with his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spear and others to view the production of the "Wizard Oz" at the Grand. As a consequence he is the butt of much good-natured ridicule today.

The Pardee party had engaged an upper box at the theater and the management of the house had gone to considerable expense to decorate it in honor of the "first Californian." The Governor sat perched in full view of the large and fashionable audience.

Scattered throughout the house were practically all the members of the delegation, among them being McKinley, Lawlor, Reed, all of whom were laying for a chance to laugh at Pardee's expense. After the performance got under way a kittenish young soubrette in an abbreviated costume pranced out to the center of the stage and began singing "Sammy, Sammy. When You Come Wooping, There's Something Doing Around My Heart."

Spotting Pardee, the merry maiden raised her arms to him and began shouting the song in his face. Judge McKinley of Los Angeles started the vociferous applause to encourage the girl, and very soon the balance of the house fell in. Then the singer began climbing up the stage fixtures until she reached the box, still shouting, "When you come wooping something is doing."

Pardee was so embarrassed that he left his seat and hid behind his wife. Thus the much-joked delegates had revenge.

DISAPPEARED DURING VOYAGE.

NEW YORK, June 21.—A cable dispatch today announced that Kent J. Loomis, brother of Assistant Secretary of State Loomis had disappeared from the Kaiser Wilhelm II, on which he sailed for Europe on June 14. GUilty OF MURDER.

SACRAMENTO, June 21.—Oscar Olsen was today found guilty of murder in the first degree for killing Henry Salt, whom he kicked to death in a railroad box car. The jury recommended that Olsen be sent to prison for life. He will receive sentence next Saturday.

WERE NOT MADE FOR ECONOMY.

Mr. Younghusband was devoted to the girl, but he would not have married on his salary of $10 a week if he had not been thoroughly convinced that two could live cheaper than one. It was a matter of economy to marry, he said. So he married. The Philadelphia Press tells how the theory worked out.

Mr. Younghusband's wife was charming, even intellectual, but at the end of the first three months they were heavily in debt and there was more "bitching" than cooing. All their talk was of retrenchment and economy, but in practice they went from bad to worse.

One evening Mr. Younghusband came home with a parcel under his arm and his step boyant and there was light in his eyes. His wife was certain that he had got the increase in salary for which they had been hoping.

"What is it, George?" she asked, expectantly.

"I've found out how to live on $10 a week."

"Have you, really?"

"Yes. It's all in this book," said he, opening the parcel. "Practical Household Economy." We'll spend the evening reading it."

"How much did you pay for it?"

"Seven dollars—$1 down and 50 cents a week. I know it's steep, but if it shows us how to live, why, it'll be cheap."

"Where did you get it?"

"Book agent—came to the office today—all the boys bought one. You don't seem specially enthusiastic. Don't you think it's a bargain?"

"George," said Mrs. Younghusband, sadly, "we were not made for economy. That book agent was here and sold me one, too."

THE LOST BUNCH.

Seated one day at the piano. My sweetheart was singing to me. And her voice had all plain telling. It struck a very high C.

I know not what she was singing—I hope I won't hear it again—But she struck one bunch of music. Like the quack of a high ended hen.

I could see she was foundering swiftly. So I foundered another song. For the breakers were certain to break in places before very long.

But hard as I tried to save her, The fact that I saw was she, Without even a life-preserver. Adrift on love's high C.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Today's Cabinet meeting was devoted to consideration of the subject of steamboat inspection brought to the attention of the Board by Secretary Cortelyou.

In view of the charges that have been made of lack of discipline on the Slocum and insufficient live-saving equipment and unsafe fittings in lockers and store rooms, it was decided that the best expert talent obtainable should be called into service and, at the suggestion of Secretary Cortelyou, it was arranged that an army and naval officer should be attached to the Board in the capacity of experts. Commander Cameron McWinsky, attached to the Navigation Bureau, was selected as the naval expert. The army probably will be represented by Maj. Oscar F. Long, of Oakland, Cal. Quartermaster-General's department who, from his familiarity with the army transport service, is believed to be particularly fitted for the work.

William E. Dargie, President.

Roosevelt, the People's Generalissimo

It is stated that the Chicago convention is a program convention. It is. The people programmed it. The people are behind Roosevelt; they compelled his nomination; they silenced opposition to his candidacy; they put an imperious veto on the machinations of politicians to tie his hands or hedge him about with pledges. They insisted upon having him for President again, with his hands free and his conscience unfettered. The men who "do politics," as the phrase goes, had naught to do but ratify the program that the masses had agreed upon at their firesides, in their counting rooms, among the fields and amid the ordinary activities of a busy people. The overwhelming force of popular sentiment "instructed" the delegations from the several States before they started for Chicago. An ominous note of caution, not to be disregarded, went with the instruction.

It is not strange, therefore, that the convention placed itself in a sense in the hands of the President. That was in accordance with the instruction coming from the masses. It is the public desire that President Roosevelt be left to manage things in his own way. It was the party mandate that he be permitted to direct his own campaign and select his own agencies for communicating with the people and signifying to them his intentions. In doing what it has done the convention has been obedient to the will of the people, not subservient to the President.

Looked at in its proper light, there is nothing peculiar or anomalous in the situation at Chicago. It is not strange that only one figure stands as an object of attention. Mr. Roosevelt is not so much bigger and greater than many other men in his party, but just now he is the people's captain. He enjoys popular confidence to an extraordinary degree. The people have unbounded faith in his patriotism, his rectitude, his unflinching courage, his resolute intention to enforce the laws, his unswerving devotion to the ideals which have made the American nation great and the Republic of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln illustrious and enduring.

It is this supreme confidence in the man that has invested him with his authority in party councils, as well as in government. What the people want is what Roosevelt represents. They are little concerned about the platform, they are indifferent as to who presides over the convention, they take only a negative interest in the orators. All they care about the Vice-President is that he shall be acceptable to Roosevelt and in accord with his views and his policy. They want Roosevelt for President and Roosevelt's ideals for a national policy.

In some respects the situation is extraordinary. Examined closely, it is seen to be natural and in strict accord with the spirit of democracy. The people want their will carried out. They see in Roosevelt the man to carry it out—fearlessly, honorably, impartially. They have handed him their high commission with only one injunction, "Do as you have done in the past—be just, and fear not."

They see in him the personification of the genius, the aspirations, and the native manhood of a free people. They regard him with no slavish adoration, their affection for him is not tinged with any spirit of subservancy, nor do they behold in him the species of superiority with which the sovereign is invested in monarchical governments. They respect him as a man, they know him as a patriot, they confide in him as a magistrate. He is the complete American citizen—the flower of the manhood of the Republic.

That is the secret of the extraordinary scene presented at Chicago, of a great party saying to one man, "We are at your command, sir, what is your pleasure?" It means that the masses of the party are wheeling by platoons and divisions behind the banner of their chosen leader ready to follow where he leads for the glory of the Republic and the honor of the American name.

What explanation could the California delegates to Chicago make when error Pardee for Mose Gunst? It is not surprising that Ruef and Gunst error Pardee for Mose Gunst. It is not surprising that Ruef and Gunst should not have been set over the heads of Knight and Pardee, but it is surprising that such a proposition should have been ever considered. Some things are so innately absurd, so preposterous in their very character as to place them outside the pale of serious consideration, and the Ruef-Gunst program at Chicago was one of them.

The Democrats who are fighting on capturing the Sixth Congressional District would do well to remember that the incumbent answers to the significant cognomen of Needham. The sound is appealing to the voters of the district.

Discussion of the Colorado Decision

The Springfield, Mass., Republican characterizes the recent decision of the Colorado Supreme Court in the Moyer case as "one of the most extraordinary in the annals of jurisprudence," and remarks that it deserves more attention outside of Colorado than it is receiving. This is undoubtedly true. While the decision applies to Colorado alone, it establishes a judicial precedent, and judicial precedents have an important bearing on decisions in other States. It will henceforth be cited as the law in Colorado. We shall hear more of it from time to time.

The real purport of this decision is not generally understood. So far as that is concerned, the Moyer case is a mere incident, the strike riots and troubles in Colorado simply a pig on which to hang a construction of the State Constitution that clothes the Governor with absolute and unlimited power whenever he sees fit to exercise it.

Briefly stated, the court lays down the doctrine that the governor is invested with the power to determine when conditions of insurrection exist, that when, in his judgment, such conditions do exist, he may set aside civil government, suspend the writ of habeas corpus, imprison, kill, deport and otherwise proceed as he will; and that the courts have no power to question or interfere.

Is it safe to lodge such unrestricted power in the hands of any man? To arrive at a sane and clear answer to this question, it is necessary to dismiss the immediate circumstances surrounding the Moyer case from consideration. We must follow this decision to its logical conclusion. Admitting for the sake of argument that Governor Peabody is a just man who acted from the highest motives, let us see what a bold, resolute, unprincipled man in his place could do. It is easy to see that he could do anything he wished, could establish a rule as absolute as that of the Sultan of Turkey, could slaughter his enemies and take and hold possession of property so long as his term of office lasted. By the exercise of the arbitrary authority conferred on him, he could control elections and have himself re-elected as often as he chose.

Now let us suppose this man translated to the Presidency with the same powers given him in Colorado. What could he not do? Might he not perpetuate his power till the end of his days by stifling with force the popular will—that is, if the courts refused to assume their constitutional prerogative of reviewing his acts and passing upon the sufficiency of the justification for his deeds. We have no fear of anything of the kind being done, but will anyone say it could not be done with impunity under the rule laid down by the Supreme Court? Might Congress not be arrested or dispersed as a treasonable body—on the ground of "military necessity"—if the President chose to assert that a state of insurrection prevailed? Mind, the Colorado court refused to inquire into the facts, merely stating that the Governor's statement was conclusive and admitted of no question. He might declare the State under martial law on the ground that a state of insurrection existed without there being any disturbance whatever.

This will not happen for a good and sufficient reason. An uprising of the people would prevent it. The President who attempted to so abuse his authority, and the judges who abetted him would be driven from the country. Nevertheless, it is all possible under the decision of the Colorado Supreme Court. Should such a construction of the organic law be allowed to stand?

If it be permitted to become imbedded in judicial precedent, it will inevitably become the warrant for such tyranny as was witnessed in England during the Stuart dynasty.

The man who does not believe this country is a land of class and degree has surely never attended a commencement at any of our universities.

Mr. Abraham Ruef probably thinks it very unfortunate that his police commission cannot take away the licenses of the delegates who refused to vote for him for national committeeman.

Now Texas has seceded from Bryan. Why, marry, this is getting to be flat burglary.

When you hold a pat hand play it. That is precisely what the Republican administration is doing. It is an invincible one, too.

No wonder the exportation of breadstuffs is falling off. If the poor of Europe are coming here to be fed.

A St. Louis hotel advertises "first-class accommodations at fair prices." When he comes to pay his bill the guest discovers that here are different meanings to the phrase fair prices. To the St. Louis landlady it means all he can get.

With only one spring of pure Democracy put in Republican Nebraska, and the voting masses turning back to the ancient ways of Bourbonism, the grand old party is in a sad case, indeed.

The day after sixteen men were hanged in Helsinki it is significantly announced that all is quiet in Finland. This sounds like Suworoff's famous dispatch to the Empress Catherine, "Peace reigns in Warsaw." It was the peace of death.

It begins to look as if the Japanese would wear themselves out licking the Russians.

CALIFORNIA AND ITS CABINET MEMBER.

While it is not officially announced that Mr. Metcalf is to be the new Secretary of Commerce, it is a common understanding, and, indeed, a practical assurance. Mr. Cortelyou has not yet resigned. In truth, he is not yet even a member of the National Committee, for which he has been slated as Chairman. The whole matter, therefore, is in waiting, but in the meantime it is understood at Washington and by Mr. Metcalf's personal and political friends at home that matters are arranged for the gentleman from Alameda.

Now, we have an occasion when all the forces of California politics, of commercial interest and of journalism ought to come together in support of the particular man who has won this high recognition. Many of us, no doubt, would have preferred some other man, but Mr. Metcalf was the man with the strength to win. It behooves us, therefore, to "get behind him" in the fullest and truest sense. His position in the Cabinet, including his capabilities for general usefulness, and particularly for usefulness in connection with California affairs, will rest largely upon the attitude of his home people toward him. A policy—or "impolicy"—of jealousy, backbiting, and of general adverse intrigue, will humiliate him with his associates in the Government, practically tie his hands, and at every point divert his attention, restrain his energies, and nullify his influence. There is in this view—and it is the only just view—a duty upon every Californian to give to Mr. Metcalf in his large responsibilities and opportunities the backing essential to a effectiveness in relation to them.

There is another aspect of this matter. California is on the map in a larger sense than formerly. Our immediate interests are greater than they have been in times past. Our immediate relationships to national interests are greater than they have ever been before. These considerations have given us through the President's selection of Mr. Metcalf representation in the Cabinet, which practically we have not had before. The advantage is one which we ought to retain and make permanent. There ought never again to be a national cabinet in which California is not represented. It behooves us, therefore, to make the service of Mr. Metcalf, in so far as we may, one of usefulness and distinction, an advantage to the country, and a credit to our State.—Sacramento Union.

AMBITIOUS SUBURBAN CITIES.

The very nice and very proper university town of Berkeley, having an ordinance in prohibition of chicken ranches or "henneries" within its corporate limits, Alameda, which coughs every time Berkeley sneezes, has taken under advisement the propriety of a similar ordinance. While in grave deliberation, the Alameda advancement association was the other day appalled at discovery of the imminence of the establishment within the city limits of a "squab factory," to harbor two thousand pigeons. Then one Colonel Babcock imparted the information that he had been "forced to bring an action in the Superior Court against a neighbor" who maintained a nuisance in his back yard by keeping between three and four hundred chickens cooked up, and thus lowering the value of Babcock's property.

Perhaps the colonel said "cooked" up. Howbeit there seems a strong probability that the island city, like President Martin Van Buren, "will follow in the footsteps of its illustrious predecessor" and forbid anybody to raise chickens within its corporate limits. There are also noted in Oakland and Alameda simultaneous movements for erection of fine tourist hotels. The Encinal improves the occasion to remind Alamedans that all over the south are splendid hostleries and that these hotels "do thriving business," attracting from the East every winter, and even from Europe, thousands of people. Oakland's coveted caravansary seems already assured, and no doubt Alameda's soon will be.—Eureka Californian.

The effect of salt water on the hair differs in individual cases, but it is certain to be very sticky and hard to dry after coming out of the surf. It is advisable to rinse it thoroughly in fresh water and soap, since it will be much lighter and easier to dry than if any of the salt water had been allowed to dry in it. The more soap one rubs into the hair and the more thorough the washing and rinsing of the sea bathing the better.

The following is said to cure a cold in the head: In the morning after rising and at night before retiring wash the feet and legs as high as the knees in cold water, then rub them with a rough towel and massage them till the skin is red and glowing. In addition to this cautiously sniff tepid water up the nose frequently during the day and slip with a teaspoon a glassful as hot as can be borne an hour before each meal and at bedtime. A few days is often quite sufficient for simple cases and obstinate ones yield if the treatment is prolonged. No medicines are required. If taken in the first stages of the disease a cold is broken up which might otherwise become a severe case of bronchitis, lasting many days or weeks.

SEATTLE DEFEATS THE SEALS.

BOTH PITCHERS GET HITS
BUNCHED IN THIRD AND SEVENTH INNINGS.

It was in the seventh inning that the Seals made a hard stab for place but the track was too heavy and the Seals were unable to get a hit. The Seals were all sorts of ways throughout the game and the final ending was 7 to 6 in favor of Seattle. C. Hall was in the box for the Seals and held the Seals down, but even strikes. He pitched the game through after having received a bunch of eight errors by his backers. It was a tough game and Brashour and R. Hall decorated the error column for all that was made during the game, each making four and ones. The Seals started out with a pair in the first inning and in the third collected a little album of five pictures representing runs. San Francisco was unable to score until the seventh, when they went after Hall for five runs and two hits. They added another in the ninth, but not enough to win the game by a tally. Knell was three times at the bat and made a run. San Francisco made four errors, two of which were credited to the wrong side of Meany's bad column. Hits were not much in evidence, both Knell and C. Hall holding the batters well in hand. Seattle got nine and San Francisco seven. The score:

KRANT AND LONG TRAINING.

LADS WILL FIGHT JUNE 30 AT SEATTLE—WILL BE FAST BATTLE.

SEATTLE, June 22.—Harry Krant, the local newsboy fighter and Louie Long, of Oakland, Cal., have been matched to battle twenty rounds at 123 pounds ringside before the Ballard Athletic Club on the evening of June 30. Long arrived here yesterday from Butte, Mont., where he had been engaged in training Benny Yanger for his battle with Herrera, the Mexican. Krant has a host of friends who are anxious to see him pitted against a bit of the real article and with Long they will have a chance to see what the local boy can do in fast company. The manner in which Krant put the finishing touches to Jimmy Kelly at outland a short time ago shows him up in pretty good light. Reilly has made several hard battles around there against such men as Menzies and was considered about the toughest they have in the light-weight class. In his last battle with Herrera, Long lost a questionable decision and his showing was far superior to that made by Yanger against the Mexican last week. Krant can score a victory over the Oakland boy, he will at once jump to the top rank. Both Long and Krant have gone into training.

BOWLERS WILL MEET.

ALAMEDA BOWLING ASSOCIATION WILL ASSEMBLE TO-NIGHT.

The Alameda County Bowling Association will meet tonight at the offices of George E. Fawcett, 1003 Broadway, Room 11. The meeting will be called to order at 8:30 o'clock. This is the regular weekly meeting of the bowlers and tonight a little wrestling out will be done for those who have not paid their dues. The association has been most prosperous from the start and now registers several score of bowlers and those interested in other branches of athletic sports.

Leo Nichols who has been one of the prime movers in the association and who is filled with enthusiasm as to the outcome of the club is of the opinion that by next fall there will be no stronger organization in the line of general athletics than will be the association which has been built up under the name of the Alameda County Bowling Association.

Tonight plans will be discussed for the erection of a club house or if the finances of the club are not sufficient, quarters will be rented which will be adequate for all fields of sport. It is the hope of the club that they may be able in the near future to build a suitable club house of its own. The rooms which they will select if they do not vote to build will be devoted to billiards, cards and other harmless games and it is hoped that a gymnasium may be also connected with the headquarters. The membership is increasing greatly and there seems to be little doubt but that the Alameda Bowling Association plans will be carried out to a most successful issue.

The association comprises many of the most prominent athletes on this side of the bay in all branches of sport. The club has already proven its superiority over the San Francisco bowlers, defeating them by a good margin at duck pins and has a baseball team that among the amateurs will be hard to beat. The club has money in the treasury and invites all who are interested in athletics on this side of the bay to attend tonight. If they are not members, they will be at liberty to make application to one of the most progressive athletic assemblies that has yet been instituted in Oakland.

INJURED BY AUTOMOBILE.

BOSTON, June 22.—Four prominent men—Dr. Franklin C. Newell, Dr. Richard Frothingham O'Neill, a son of Rear Admiral O'Neill, Richard Borden of Fall River and Henry Sweet, have been injured in an automobile accident on Brookline avenue today. The car, driven by Dr. O'Neill, was going home, but the others were taken to the City Hospital. It is not thought they were seriously hurt.

How the accident occurred is not known. A boy found the wrecked automobile which appeared to have collided with a telegraph pole. The four men lay unconscious on the ground to which they had been hurled. Police ambulances carried them to the hospital.

DAVE BARRY HAS OAKLAND AGAIN.

CHAMPION OF HAWAII MAY MEET TWIN SULLIVAN THIS MONTH.

Dave Barry, the champion of the Hawaiian Islands, who has arrived from Honolulu last night, is being sought to meet Twin Sullivan in a boxing contest under the auspices of the Yosemite Athletic Club which is trying to arrange a bout for June 30. Barry has made a most enviable record for himself in the Islands. He has met and defeated all who made claim for championship honors in the Paradise of the Pacific. His first battle there was with Jack Waddy, one of the cleverest boxers in the Islands. Barry disposed of Waddy easily. He had the speed and the youth back of him against the old war horse who had won so many battles. He then met Australian Murphy in two bouts and put him away without any trouble. He then met a hard pugilist in Williams from the Honolulu Dock Works and gave him all he wanted in a single round. Then came Mike Patton, who is considered one of the cleverest of the New York amateur boxers and Dave put him away without thinking. There was nothing more doing as Barry is too clever for the fighters in that section. Pneumatic Billy Woods had Barry in training at his gymnasium on Bethel street. His quarters were exceptionally good and he had a fine view of the bay. He had a fine view of the bay. He had a fine view of the bay.

Twin Sullivan has never been signally defeated and would probably put up one of the best contests with Barry that the latter has ever had to run up against. Barry has improved wonderfully since he left the coast but Sullivan has had some good battles and will make one of the best opponents that could be selected for Barry. Sullivan is always in condition and is at present in St. Louis. Barry is always ready for a scrap and it does not seem unlikely that the two will meet.

SCOTTISH BOWLING.

The fifth round in the semi-finals will be played on the green of the Oakland Scottish Bowling Club next Saturday afternoon. W. H. Thomson will play against William F. D. Walker and John Tait will try conclusions with G. McMath.

PURSE FOR PRIEST.

Yesterday the ladies of the Sacred Heart Church presented Rev. Father J. B. Prugh with a well-filled purse prior to his departure on a visit to his happy home in Prince Edward Island. The recipient of the token feelingly expressed his appreciation of the gift, which was to him a great surprise. Father Prugh expects to be absent from Oakland three months.

HERPICIDE NOT A FAKE.

Unsolicited Testimonials Tell of Its Superiority.
Afr. R. Keller, residing at 295 Devisadero street, San Francisco, Cal., writes the following:
"When I first purchased Herpicide, I thought, like the majority of hair preparations, it would prove a fake. I am happy to state that, on the contrary, it is all, and even more, than you claim for it. Quite a number of barbers throughout the section in which I travel have called attention to the new hair sprouting out on my scalp, and inquired of me what I have been using. I tell them 'Herpicide'; also give them your name and address." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Bowman & Co., Special Agents.

POOR WOMAN'S MONEY STOLEN.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Mrs. Annie Brzobohata, an aged widow, has been robbed of $1,700 which she had been accumulating during sixteen years to be used as part recompense for a wrong committed by her husband. The money was kept beneath a cupboard in the house.

Through nearly two decades Mrs. Brzobohata struggled and suffered to raise a fund which at her death might be left to Miss Marie Cross, who was made fatherless at the hands of Brzobohata, and who for several years has made her home with Mrs. Brzobohata.

John Cross was killed by Brzobohata during a quarrel in Chicago many years ago. Brzobohata was convicted and sent to the penitentiary but on his release he joined his wife in the plan to care for Cross' daughter. After Brzobohata's death two years ago the widow redoubled her efforts and made rigid her economy, for she was nearing seventy years. But a thief has undone the work of years, and friends of the widow fear the loss will have a serious effect upon her.

LABOR UNION
NEWS.MANY MEETINGS OF IMPORT-ANCE—MACHINISTS TO INVESTIGATE.

The Machinists' Union has appointed a committee of investigation to learn at what Eastern shops the engines for the Key Route are being built and whether those shops are fair.

In the event of the contrary being ascertained the Key Route will be placed upon the unfair list.

Several amendments to the constitution were passed.

There were five applications for membership.

The assessments of the Stockton strikers and the Western Federation of Miners were paid.

BUILDING TRADES' COUNCIL.
The meeting of the Building Trades' Council last night was largely attended.

The picnic committee meets on the twenty-fifth at Unity Hall, 327 Mission street, San Francisco—the headquarters of the Building Trades' Council of that city.

BUSINESS AGENT'S REPORT.
J. B. Bowen, business agent of the Council, reported upon the condition of affairs in the building industries.

He stated that there is at present a smaller percentage of non-union work as compared with union work.

The union movement throughout the country is on the increase and prospects are very bright.

The well defined policy of the Building Trades' Council and the absence of strife is stated to be responsible for the excellent conditions of affairs in the building lines.

All unions reported business to be good in their respective lines, the men all being employed, and the outlook for the remainder of the year prosperous to a degree.

Saturday night last the delegates from the various carpenters' unions convened to form an organization for the purpose of owning and operating a planing mill.

H. Willis was elected president pro tem and J. M. O'Neill temporary secretary.

The incorporation of the company under the laws of the State will follow.

In order to investigate matters thoroughly and if possible secure an option upon a desirable mill which may be purchased outright, a committee was appointed consisting of Messrs. Wisland, Rodwell, Hemmerle and Kruger.

The West Berkeley furniture factory in a property which is said to be on the market at a reasonable price and which appears to offer few obstacles to a transformation into a planing mill.

BAKERS' UNION.
The Bakers' Union is preparing to vote on amendments to the international constitution. Two important measures are proposed. One is to establish a fund for the use of local unions in case of emergency. The other measure is also to create a fund to be used in aiding members who are out of work for the time being.

The idea of the latter measure is adopted from a German plan in vogue among the unions. There the rates of unemployed men are paid out of the fund from one town to another and they are thus enabled to seek work when thrown out of employment in the place they live. The fund also provides for their maintenance during such times. It has been the purpose of those who prepared the amendments to cover the most advantageous points.

BENEFIT ASSURED.
A. E. Peck, manager of Peck's Theater, which is at present closed, called at the last meeting of the Laundry Wagon Drivers' Union and assured the organization that the benefit planned for June

The local men were cordially invited to take part in the contests which will be a feature of the Carpenters' annual picnic. A committee has been appointed to take charge of the matter, consisting of M. O'Connor and C. Heik.

The local union will consider the matter this evening.

He has had much experience in the work of organizing for central labor bodies, with which he has been long identified. It is stated that certain other "teamster" organizations will probably have Mr. Gallagher act for them at the convention.

MORE PAMPHLETS.

The Merchants' Exchange held their regular meeting last evening, with President A. Jonas presiding. A communication was received and placed on file from the executive committee of the Inter-State Commerce Law convention, held recently at St. Louis, thanking the Exchange for the donation made to the expense fund of the committee.

Another communication was received from the California Promotion Committee asking for another supply of pamphlets recently printed at the order of the Exposition Committee of this county on "California State Flowers."

H. D. Hardy was unanimously elected a member of the Exchange.

Mr. Martin addressed the Exchange on three matters of which he thought cogency should be taken. These were the manner of hitching horses employed by some wagon drivers, the surplus amount of oil on certain portions of Broadway and the feasibility of an ordinance being passed to compel automobiles to have numbers placed upon them in order to distinguish one from another.

The chair appointed Messrs. Young, Howard and Walker as a committee to look into the matters mentioned.

The secretary was instructed to send a letter of condolence to the widow of the late George L. Nussbaum.

Captain Oakley Sees Leviathan Sporting in the Bay.

BERKELEY, June 22—According to Captain J. R. Oakley, of the steamer Resolute, who resides at 1922 Louisiana street, San Francisco, has a whale. The Captain, who is backed up by several credible witnesses, declares that he saw the leviathan sport about in the waters last night while crossing the bay in the vessel of which he is the master.

The captain and crew of the Resolute secured a good view of the sea monster, which is declared to be fully 75 feet long. At first it was believed that there was a whale, but as the creature rose above the water, the sight of the monster dispelled this belief.

The deep sea monster soon veered off

ESCAPES DEATH.

Painter H. B. Hartman

Grasps a Live Wire.

While painting an electric light pole this morning in East Oakland, H. B. Hartman, an employee of the Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company grasped a live wire and in an effort to loose his hold took hold with the other hand with the result that both his hands were frightfully burned and he escaped death by slipping down the pole attached to it by a strap he had around his waist. Both his ankles were sprained and he was severely wounded by the action of the strap which saved him from falling to the ground. He was hurried to the Receiving Hospital where Steward Borchert and Dr. R. W. Emerson did all they could to relieve the man's sufferings.

How Hartman escaped death the electric people are unable to explain. The wire was a heavily charged one and it is estimated that 25,000 volts went through his body. It is supposed that merely coming in contact with such a wire will knock one down but to take hold of it with both hands and live to tell the tale is more than they are able to account for. Both hands were virtually cooked to the bone. When he finally released his hold of the wire his body fell from the cross-tree but was kept from doing more than sliding rapidly down the pole by a safety strap. Hartman struck the ground with such force that both ankles were injured.

In making a statement of what he could remember of the affair, Hartman said that he took hold of the wire supposing that it was a dead one. He lost all track of the next few moments and only regained consciousness when he was being removed to the hospital.

He gave his age as 34 and said that he lived at the East Oakland Hotel.

MINOR THEFTS ARE COMMITTED.

Joe McCarthy and Arthur Case, roomers at the Pullman house in West Oakland, report their rooms were entered sometime yesterday and a quantity of valuable clothing stolen. This is the last of a series of petty crimes which have been perpetrated in this place.

Frank Anderson of 1470 Seventh street and Mrs. Leon Hall, 1395 Telegraph, both report bicycles stolen from them yesterday.

HARD TRIP FOR BRADY.

INJURED MAN BROUGHT HOME AND THENCE BACK TO FRENCH HOSPITAL.

T. J. Brady, the plumber whose shop is at 467 Eighth street and who was seriously injured either through an accidental fall or by being slugged in San Francisco, Saturday night was brought to his home, 810 Castro street yesterday afternoon from the Emergency Hospital, San Francisco, only to be taken back immediately to San Francisco where he became a patient at the French Hospital.

The removal of this side of the bay was a mistake which may yet cost Brady his life, because the physicians at the Emergency Hospital advised against it Sunday last and when they gave permission for his removal, it was with the understanding that he was to be taken to the French Hospital on the other side of the bay. The surgeons declared that Brady could not withstand the shock of the long ride to this city.

Accordingly, the Committee of Oakland Grove of Druids comprising Thomas O'Keefe, A. L. Samson and G. Roberts made arrangements for the transfer of the injured man from the Emergency Hospital to the French Hospital.

Yesterday at 11 o'clock the transfer was to be made and the surgeons at the French Hospital waited for the arrival of the patient, but this did not take place until late in the evening, and they were then amazed to learn that Brady had been first brought to his home here and that his wife had informed the men in charge of the ambulance that she could not care for her husband and further that she desired him to be taken to the French Hospital according to the plan which had been arranged by the Druid Committee.

When the patient was placed in the ward in the French Hospital he was cold in all extremities and it was feared that the trans-bay trip had retarded his cure. Brady is still in a critical condition.

Mrs. Brady when seen at her home this morning explained the mistake as follows:

"The Druids committee made arrangements to have my husband taken to the French Hospital in San Francisco to avoid the fatigue of the journey here and because, as I am all alone, he could receive much better care there than I could give him at home. I was about to go to the French Hospital yesterday to see him, supposing that he had been taken there, when the Nightingale ambulance, with my husband in it, stopped in front of my house. The driver said he had been told to bring him to my house by the men at the Emergency Hospital in San Francisco and then demanded $5 for doing so. I paid him that sum and told him I could not take care of my husband and that I wanted him to be taken to the French Hospital. I believe if I had not paid the money the ambulance men would have dumped my husband on the sidewalk. I afterwards went to the French Hospital and found that he was nearly as cold as death when he arrived there. There is a hole in his

NOTED SCHOLAR ARRIVES.

PROF. F. J. TURNER OF WISCONSIN HERE FOR SUMMER SCHOOL.

BERKELEY, June 22.—Professor Frederick J. Turner, the most distinguished of American historians, arrived today from Madison, Wisconsin, and has taken up his residence at the Berkeley Inn on Bancroft Way and Telegraph Avenue. Professor Turner is one of the galaxy of the world's most noted scholars who are to give lectures at the Summer Session of the University of California which opens on Monday next.

Professor Turner is at present the head of the department of history in the University of Wisconsin. He has written many monographs and articles on American history which have been reproduced in current publication. Besides this, he is the author of several books on United States history, especially Western history.

While at Berkeley Professor Turner will confine himself to the teaching of American history. He has had marked success in the training of teachers of history and most of the teachers of history in the Western States have come from his seminary.

This is Professor Turner's first visit to the coast. He expresses himself as greatly pleased with California and especially with the University town.

DISMISS CHARGE AGAINST WENDT.

Albert Wendt, a clerk formerly employed by the Jackson Furniture Company, who was accused of stealing several articles of value, had the charge of petty larceny dismissed against him this morning in Police Court. Wendt promised to leave the State.

Lead large enough in which to insert a pencil cannot yet state whether or not he will recover.

"The only way I can explain the trip to my home is this. My husband was to have gone yesterday as a delegate from Oakland Grove of Druids to the Oakland Grove, which is now in session in Santa Cruz. Owing to his condition, he was not of course, able to go and A. L. Samson, a member of the committee who had made the arrangements at the French Hospital and who was to have accompanied my husband to that place, went to Santa Cruz in his stead. Before leaving for Santa Cruz, however, Mr. Samson delegated another man to take my husband to the French Hospital, but that man, whose name I don't know, did not keep his promise, and my husband was then sent to his home."

Brady is still unable to tell how he was injured and it is feared that even if he should survive his injuries, he will be afflicted with deafness.

LIST OF DEAD INCREASES.

POLICE ARE TRYING TO MAKE A COMPLETE REPORT.

NEW YORK, June 22.—A determined effort to ascertain a nearly as possible the number of persons who took passage on the excursion steamer General Slocum when she started on her ill-fated trip up the Sound one week ago today has been begun under the direction of the Police Department.

One hundred patrolmen have been detailed to visit the homes of every person whose name has been in any way mentioned in connection with the disaster.

These officers will make up a list of names of persons who went on the excursion from their several districts, with their individual fates. From these lists a final report, embodying all the names will be prepared.

The list of known dead, which has reached 846 up to 2 o'clock this morning, steadily increased since that hour.

Before daylight twelve more bodies had been taken from the river and nearly every succeeding hour added to the total.

APPLICANTS HAVE SMALL CHANCE.

THOUSANDS OF APPLICATIONS RECEIVED BUT PERCENTAGE OF QUALIFIERS LOW.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—D. I. Murphy, secretary of the Isthmian Canal Commission, today gave out the following:

"Applications for places under the commission have been filed by thousands and are still pouring in. It ought to be understood that no one not possessing special qualifications will be appointed for the work of the commission. The work will be largely of a technical character."

"Those applying for service on the Isthmus, in addition to the possession of exceptional qualities, must pass a rigid physical examination, under the direction of the public health and marine hospital service, to test their fitness for service in the tropics."

"Probably not one in a hundred of those applying have even a remote chance of appointment."

SECRETARY'S SON SUMMER SCHOOL TRIPS.

NO TRACE OF VENT J. LOOMIS HAS YET BEEN DISCOVERED.

LONDON, June 22.—Apparently nothing is known in regard to the disappearance of Kent J. Loomis, brother of Assistant Secretary of State Loomis, who was a passenger on board the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II, which left New York June 14 and arrived at Plymouth Monday morning and at Bremen yesterday.

Inquiries made at Bremen show Mr. Loomis was seen at midnight Saturday, and that he was missed at noon Monday.

No one seems to know what happened in the interval.

The representatives of the agents of the line who bonded the Kaiser Wilhelm II. at Plymouth, spoke to Capt. Gege-mann, the purser, the doctor of the steamer, and others on board, but they had heard nothing of the disappearance of the passenger.

A dispatch received here from Bremen today reads:

"The North German Lloyd Company has no information about Mr. Loomis beyond the fact that he was missed an hour before the arrival at Plymouth. Whether it was an accident or suicide is not known."

A dispatch from Paris says that apprehension has been aroused there concerning the whereabouts of Mr. Loomis and that on the request of friends the agents of the company are making inquiries.

AUDITOR REJECTS CHAPIN'S CLAIM.

The following was filed with the City Council today:

I desire to notify you that I have had presented to me claims from F. E. Chapin for $500 being amount paid into the city treasury by one J. H. Macdonald for a certain franchise for a street railroad upon certain streets in Oakland. Said Chapin claims that the award of the franchise was not properly made. I desire to notify you that I have this day rejected said claim for the reason that the amount paid was a voluntary payment to the city and, in my judgment, there is no authority in law for the drawing of my official warrant for said claim.

Respectfully,
A. H. BREED,
Auditor City of Oakland.

CONTINUES LIBEL CASE.

The criminal libel suit brought by Constable Bert Hempstead against Attorney J. H. Boyce was continued until September 5 by Police Judge Simmt this morning.

SUMMER SCHOOL TRIPS.

MID-TERM STUDENTS AT STATE UNIVERSITY TO BE ENTERTAINED.

BERKELEY, June 22.—A special feature of the Summer Session of the University of California will be a series of excursions planned for the benefit of the students by Professor Leo J. Richardson, dean of the Summer School. These excursions are planned in order that the visitors from the East and various parts of the State may have an opportunity to become acquainted with the natural beauties of Berkeley and the surrounding country.

The little jaunting trips are to take place on Saturdays during the session so as not to interfere with the regular work of the class rooms.

So far Professor Richardson has arranged for the following trips: To Wild Cat Canyon, to Mount Tamalpais and Mill Valley, to Mount Diablo, and to Bolinas.

This is only one of the innovations that are being arranged by Professor Richardson to add to the attractiveness of Berkeley's vacation school. This year's session promises to eclipse any other summer school in the United States so far as noted educators and special features go.

AN AMERICAN PRODUCT.

Prof. Dr. Linthier, Director of the "Scientific Station for the Brewing Industry of Bavaria at Munich" upon analyzing "Pilsener Urquell" the beer of the "Buergerliches Brauhaus" of Pilsen, Bohemia, and "Anheuser-Busch's Budweiser" under date of May 17, 1904, makes the following statement given to before Dr. Funde, Royal Notary, and verified by Hon. James H. Worman, United States Consul General at Munich, Bavaria:

"Upon subjecting the several beers to a careful analysis I find that the 'Budweiser Beer' submitted by Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, St. Louis, U. S. A., is very similar, in all its characteristics, to the finest and best Pilsener beers. It is effervescent, clear and sparkling, has a beautiful creamy foam and is possessed of a pure, wholesome taste and an exquisite flavor. Its keeping qualities by far exceed those of the Pilsener beers, resulting from the use of the very best materials in brewing, and the thorough maturity of the product. The analysis further shows that no acids or other preservatives have been used in its production, and as a result of my examination I pronounce 'Budweiser' a well matured bottled beer of the highest quality."

This acknowledgment coming as it does from the recognized headquarters of the brewing industry of the Old World, must be a great source of gratification and in a measure a compensation to the Anheuser-Busch people for their unceasing efforts to produce the finest beer that can be made.
